Bulletin for February 16, 2020

Services—10am & 6pm

We begin the Lenten season on Ash Wednesday remembering that we are guilty of causing separation from God, and also rejoicing that He has called us and made us new in the Gospel. The imposition of ashes, a sign of our penitent hearts before God, will happen at both Ash Wednesday services held in the church – 10am (with the students) or 6pm.

Also, get a copy of our Lenten devotional that will be given out Feb. 22-23 and read along with us. Trinity members and friends have shared a 'story' for each of the 40 days of the Lenten season.

Team TNT! It's Dynamite

It was great to have 10 people at the very first meeting of this new TLC ministry to help maintain our facility. They identified places that could use some fixing, painting, cleaning or replacing and are excited to get started! Anyone interested in helping with the to-do list can come every or any Tuesday from 10am to noon. A big thank you goes out to Tim and Helen Banyai who have agreed to coordinate Team TNT.

Lenten Devotion Book

Thank you to everyone that took time to submit a 'story' about how God is working in their life. The finishing touches are being added to this booklet and plans are to distribute it Feb. 22-23. Be sure to get a copy – and some to share with others. It's amazing and powerful to see how God works if we just take the time to notice!
